

Robert LaPalme

From: Seth Pinsky
Sent: Monday, July 24, 2006 3:16 PM
To: Dan Doctoroff @ Cityhall
Subject: Yankees

A couple of little additional issues that you may be hearing about from Randy at some point.

1. Yankees said they don't want to pay for food for our suite. My position is: if others get food with their suites, so should we. I assume you agree.
2. Yankees said they don't want to have to buy us tickets for our suite if MLB takes over all suites for play-offs. I said no. I assume you agree.
3. Yankees said they want some sort of "disincentive" to keep us from saying we're going to use the suite and then not showing up. I said we'll informally commit not to do this, but not do more. I assume you agree.

Please let me know if you have any questions or if any of my assumptions are wrong.